A Schism.-Brigham Young and his associate leaders have been stirred to especial wrath by the recent arrival in the territory of a son of Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism, and an associate leader in the alleged original and pure Mormon faith, whose name is Gillen. They have gone into the territory with a view to set up an independent standard; but such is the iron rule of Young and company, and the want of protection to free speech and other equal rights by the Federal Presidency of Joseph Smith, to the Utah mission. He called at the office on Friday, and seems to be a man of intelligence and probity; well versed in the doctrines he is purposing to expound, and will prove a formidable opponent to the system of Brigham Young. The church he represents is faithfully striving to rid Mormonism of the crime of polgamy, manblood atonement, and other horrifying dogmas introduced by successive steps into the church creed, and we compliment the society on so able a representative." Brigham Young denounced the Smiths and their followers most virulently at the recent meeting of the semiannual Mormon conference. The widow of the original Joseph, and mother of the younger and present Smith, was declared by him to I shall proceed to execute said decree. he "the dampedest liar that ever lived," and to have several times attempted to poison her husband.-Her recollections and testimony as

In the House of Representatives, on Wednesday, Mr. Rogers, of New Jersey, said:

He had never feared to state his position, and he would say now that he deeply sympathised with the down-trodden people of the South, that they were governed by a despotism, and that the conduct of the present Congress toward the South would itself be a suffiwould always protest, against all despotism everywhere. He protested against the despotism of this Congress, and he warned the peoism of this Congress, and he warned the people of the whole country that their liberties were about being taken away from them by a set of crazy fenatics. He was for general am-

The whole object of the legislation of Congress seemed to be to punish the South. He had yet to hear uttered in the House, except by a few individuals, the first word of magnanimity toward the South, the first principle of Christianity cited in their behalf. The pcople of the South were a brave people. To be sure, thay had rebelled against the Government, but in doing so they had done only what

Mr. Rogers drew a parallel between the condition of Ireland and that of the South, quoting as applicable to the latter the political axiom that taxation without representation is tyranny, and said that the whole South was unrepresented in any way in Congress, except the single State of Tennessee, which, however, had not proper representation, and had not a republican form of government, but was governed
